

Robert Welch

Associate Director

Robert is an Associate Director of Cor Cordis and is based in the Melbourne Office.

Experience

Robert has provided insolvency advice to a broad range of organisations and individuals for in excess of 25 years.

He has a strong and broad knowledge of insolvency law and aims to apply a commercial approach with the purpose of resolving matters quickly so as to ensure that clients receive the best commercial result possible in the circumstances.

He has conducted a large number of investigations and reviews of the financial affairs of corporations and individuals and reporting to relevant parties including financial institutions, government, semi-government and private lenders. He also provides advice to clients regarding their rights, duties and obligations under relevant legislation.

Robert has been involved in investigative accountant's reports, financial due diligence investigations, pre-lend reviews and risk analysis, performance monitoring engagements on behalf of secured lenders.

He has strong background in investigation and analysis of company financial records and action for recovery of antecedent transactions.

Robert has also assisted companies in a range of industries to restructure their businesses or to develop and implement successful exit strategies.

Expertise

- Manufacturing
- Motor Vehicle Industry
- Retail
- Timber Industry
- Transport

Professional Qualifications

- Bachelor of Business (Accounting)

Professional Associations

- Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia